

Chariho High School

Rhode Island

THE SCHOOL

Chariho High School is a public school located 40 miles south of Providence. It provides its students with a career and technical facility as well as independent study and internship programs. The school also has STEM classes and extracurricular activities, as well as its own film festival.

THE COMMUNITY

Chariho High School serves three towns in Rhode Island, Charlestown, Richmond, and Hopkinton. These communities are home to wildlife refuges, parks, beaches, and observatories. It is located 45 minutes from both the capital city of Providence and the historical beach town of Newport.

SPORTS

Boys: Football, Soccer, Cross Country, Basketball, Wrestling, Indoor track, Hockey, Baseball, Volleyball, Lacrosse, Tennis, Golf, Outdoor track.

Girls: Volleyball, Soccer, Field Hockey, Tennis, Cross Country, Cheerleading, Basketball, Indoor Track, Dance, Basketball, Softball, Lacrosse, Outdoor Track.

EXTRA CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Anime Club, Book Club, Business Club, Chess Club, Environmental Club, Film Club, Gaming, National Honor Society, Creative Writing & Journalism, Language Clubs, Student Government & Leadership, STEM Club, Model UN, Robotics, Yearbook.

ACADEMICS

School offers college credit classes through Rhode Island College. AP courses include Biology, Chemistry,

- ✓ State Championship Basketball
- ✓ Annual Student Film Festival
- ✓ Marine Technology Center

Art History, Calculus, Computer Science, English Language, English Literature, European History, Micro Economics, Music Theory, Physics I & II, Statistics, Studio Art, US History and US Government and Politics. School also offers students transportation to Brown University to study science with the college students. Chariho also offers students an internship program.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

STS Application accepted.
Interview required.
English Test not required.
Semester students accepted.
Seniors accepted.
Graduation possible.

