

JSerra Catholic High School California

THE SCHOOL

JSerra was created in 2003 by a group of dedicated parents upon the foundation of the Catholic Church and offering an exceptional academic curriculum with innovative programming. The 40 acre campus features a 2000 seat gymnasium, Olympic size swimming pool and all possible athletic fields including tennis courts and sand volleyball courts. Awards and success have followed their Model UN program, Steel Drum Band and Academic Decathlon teams.

THE COMMUNITY

San Juan Capistrano is one of the oldest cities in Orange County, 60 miles south of Los Angeles and notes as the Equestrian Capital of the West Coast. It is largely surrounded by residential communities. The area is characterized by its cultural diversity and unique history as a California mission town, strong in Spanish Architecture. The Recreational Trail system is dedicated to mountain bicycling, hiking and equestrian use.
